

FAST FACTS

➔ We're here to help!

Family Voices Colorado provides free assistance to children and youth with special healthcare needs or disabilities and their families. We are the Family to Family Health Information Center for Colorado.

Our work includes systems navigation, education and training, and policy work to ensure the systems work for those they intend to serve.

RESOURCES

COLORADO EDUCATIONAL AND DISABILITY SPECIFIC

Colorado Educational Resources

The Arc of Colorado: 303-864-9334 www.thearcofco.org

The Arc of Colorado promotes and protects the human rights of people with intellectual and developmental disabilities and actively supports their full inclusion and participation in the community throughout their lifetimes. The Arc provides educational advocacy and adult advocacy services, free of charge.

Colorado Department of Education (CDE) Office of Special Education: 303-866-6600

<https://www.cde.state.co.us/cdesped>

This office administers both the state's Exceptional Children's Educational Act (ECEA) and the federal Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) for children with disabilities. They are a resource for teachers, administrators, and parents of students with exceptional educational needs due to disability, or learners who are culturally and/or linguistically diverse or have some other special need.

PEAK Parent Center: 719-531-9400 www.peakparent.org/

PEAK Parent Center believes that all children, including children with disabilities, can learn and participate in their neighborhood schools. Every day, PEAK teaches parents, students, educators, and professionals the skills they need to successfully educate students with all types of disabilities and abilities.

Parents Encouraging Parents (PEP): 720-237-4600 www.cde.state.co.us/cdesped/pep

The Exceptional Student Services Unit at CDE plans conferences throughout the year that are family-centered and designed to offer support, information, and education to parents and professionals who are Colorado residents.

Show and Tell: 303-632-6840 www.weshowandtell.org/

Show and Tell gives parents and caregivers in the Denver metro area the resources they need to help their children with disabilities thrive. Their focus is crafting relationships with underserved BIPOC (Black, Indigenous, and People of Color) families and connecting them with the tools they need to help their children develop essential life skills.
